

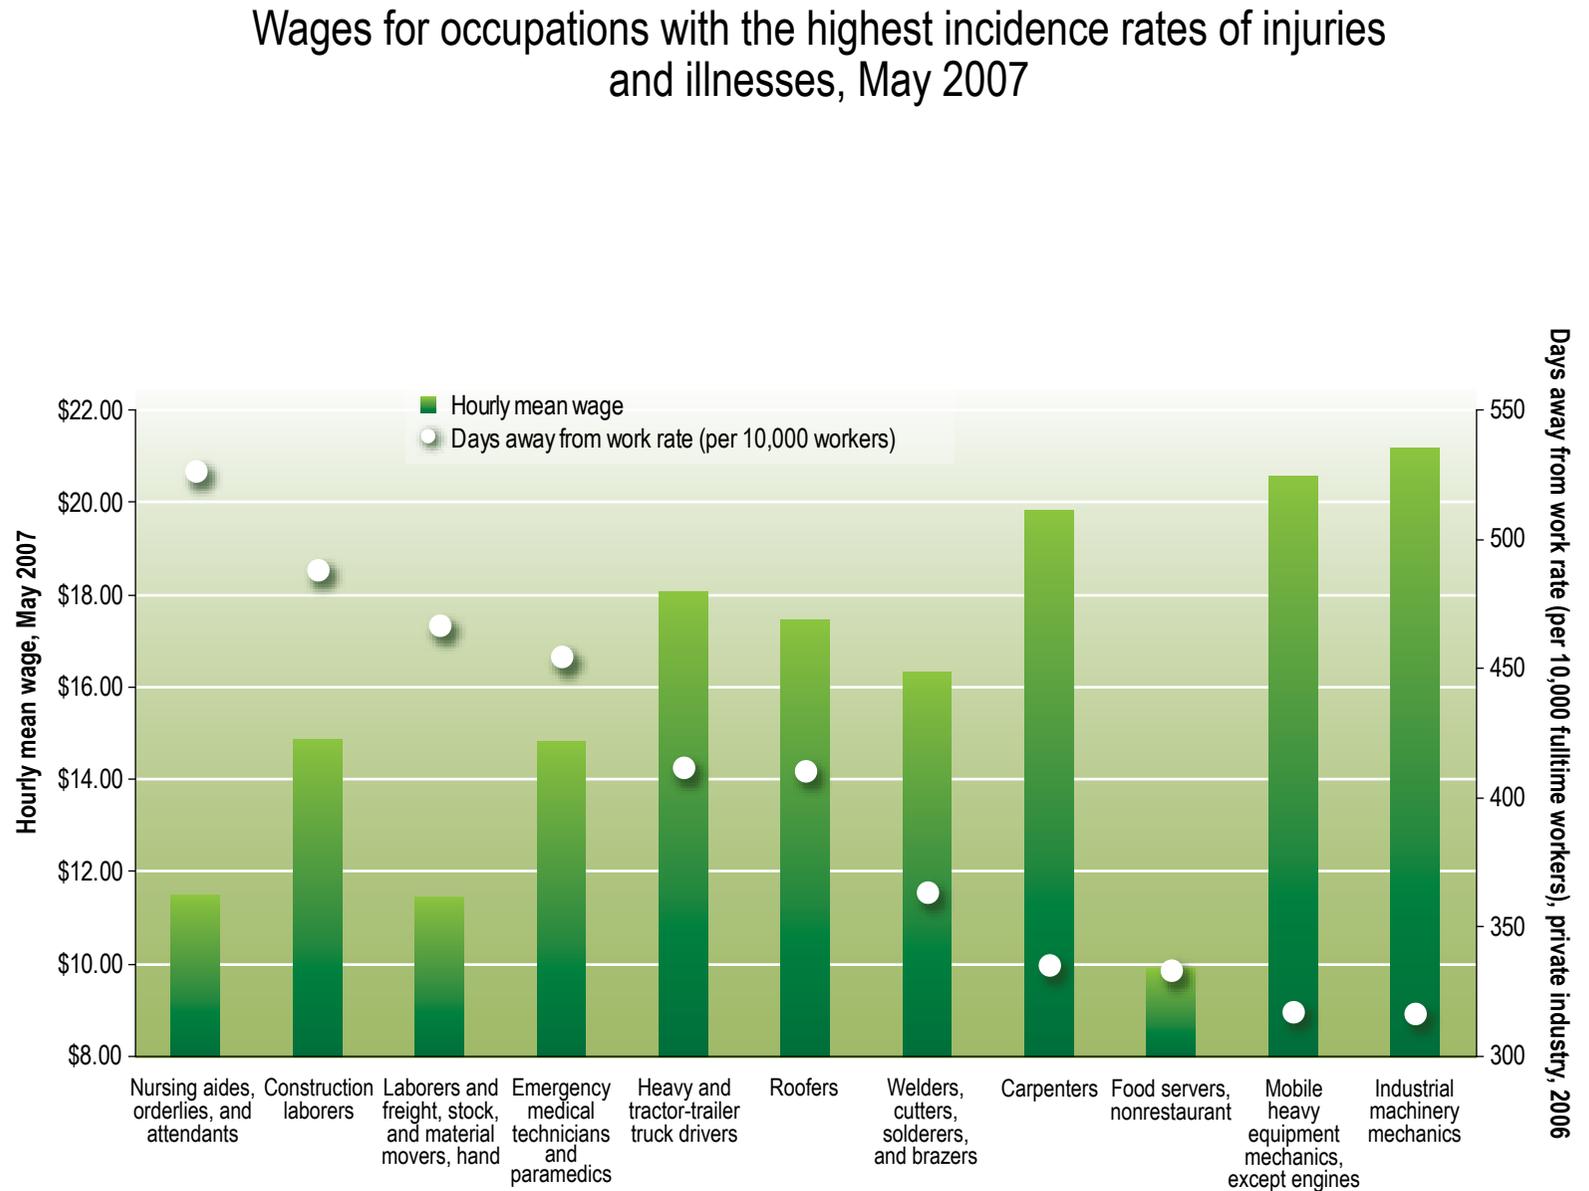

FIGURE 8

- Carpenters; mobile heavy equipment mechanics, except engines; and industrial machinery mechanics had above-average wages.
- Laborers and freight, stock, and material movers, hand was the largest occupation among those listed, with 2,363,440 jobs.
- Nursing aides, orderlies, and attendants had more than 4 times the incidence rate for all occupations. They also earned a low mean wage relative to other occupations shown.

Source of incidence rates: 2006 Injuries, Illnesses, and Fatalities, U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics
Source of mean wages: May 2007 Occupational Employment Statistics, U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics

